

IEEE IT Society Japan Chapter Young Researcher Best Paper Award

IEEE Information Theory Society Japan Chapter honors excellent papers that are authored by young colleagues and presented at ISITA2024. At most three winners will receive IEEE IT Society Japan Chapter Young Researcher Best Paper Awards with a reward of 30,000 Japanese Yen each (if the winner is a student, the reward is 10,000 Japanese Yen due to the regulation of IEEE Japan Council). The winners of the awards will be announced at the banquet of the symposium.

Please note that the schedule and operations are subject to change according to the implementation of the symposium.

Schedule

August 28th, 2024 23:59 JST: deadline for application

Eligibility

Those who meet all of the following conditions are eligible to apply for the award.

- A. You have (or you have applied for) an IEEE membership that is (will be) associated with a Japan-based Geo Section; Sapporo, Sendai, Shin-Etsu, Tokyo, Nagoya, Kansai, Hiroshima, Shikoku or Fukuoka Section.
- B. You are 35 years old or younger on April 30th, 2024.
- C. You are the first author of an accepted paper of ISITA2024.
- D. You will give a presentation of the accepted paper at ISITA2024.
- E. If you are a student, then your supervisor endorses your application.

Selection

You are included in the list of candidates only if you make an application (see later sections for the application procedure). The winners of the award are determined based on the review of the paper and the evaluation of the presentation in the symposium. The names of award winners will be announced in the award ceremony of ISITA2024. The award might be canceled if you do not present yourself when your name is called in the award ceremony.

Application

Prepare an application form with authorized signature(s), scan the form, and send the PDF format data by email to the following address. Use the email subject “best paper award ISITA2024”.
